9 OCT 2025

In a world defined by constant disruption, the internal audit profession is facing a pivotal moment. Rapid technological change, evolving stakeholder demands, geopolitical and economic uncertainty, as well as emerging risks are transforming how organisations operate, and correspondingly how internal auditors must respond.

Shaping Change. Elevating Insight. is the theme of the Annual Conference 2025, bringing together internal audit professionals, thought leaders, and industry experts.

Through engaging presentations, fireside chats, and panel discussions, the conference delves into how internal auditors can harness emerging technologies such as Artificial Intelligence (AI), address cyber threats, and foster cultural and behavioural alignment across organisations. Discover strategies to navigate geopolitical uncertainty, redefine assurance in the digital age, and lead with resilience, influence, and foresight.
