

CRMA Certification: Advance Your Internal Auditing Career

Dear Member,

Congratulations on earning your Certified Internal Auditor (CIA) designation! You have already demonstrated your expertise in internal auditing and commitment to professional excellence. However, have you considered taking the next step in your professional development by obtaining the Certification in Risk Management Assurance (CRMA)?

In today's dynamic risk landscape, internal audit practitioners are required to possess a more comprehensive understanding of their organisation's risks. As a result, providing risk management assurance has become a primary responsibility for these professionals. CRMA links all the critical, individual elements together for that big-picture, holistic view of organisation risk. By obtaining this certification, you can position yourself as a valuable advisor to both the audit committee and executive management for risk management today. With a broad and deep understanding of your organisation's risks, you can offer valuable insights and guidance, demonstrating your expertise in risk management and helping your organisation to thrive in today's ever-changing business environment.

Furthermore, there is a cost savings opportunity for you in May 2023, with 20% off CRMA application and exam fees. This is a great opportunity to take advantage of and pursue this certification that will undoubtedly advance your career in internal auditing.

Don't miss this opportunity to take advantage of the cost savings in May 2023 and pursue the CRMA certification!
