

Sarjit Singh

BBM(L), BBM, PBM, FCA (Australia), FCA (Singapore), CVA, ISCA FFP, Ph.D(Hon.)

Chairman, Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand Singapore Overseas Regional Council and Senior Advisor, Deloitte Southeast Asia

Sarjit Singh is a Senior Advisor at Deloitte Southeast Asia and the Leader of Deloitte Learning Solutions. He leads a team of dedicated experts to harness the collective wealth of knowledge and expertise of Deloitte to deliver tailored learning solutions in financial reporting and analysis, corporate governance, risk management, internal controls, sustainability, artificial intelligence, board readiness and leadership programmes. His team consistently identifies emerging trends, technologies, and methodologies to cater to the dynamic needs of businesses and professionals in the region.

Sarjit's expertise and experience extend to serving a diverse range of clients, including public listed companies, financial institutions, multinationals, government ministries, organs of state, charities, and statutory boards.

Sarjit is a highly accomplished professional with more than 30 years of multinational experience in accounting and finance. He holds multiple qualifications, including being a Fellow Chartered Accountant in Singapore, Australia and New Zealand, a Chartered Valuer and Appraiser, and a Financial Forensic Professional.

Sarjit has held various leadership roles throughout his career, including CEO Singapore of InCorp Global, Chairman and Senior Partner of Kreston ACA, CFO of Aviva Asia, and CFO of AIA Singapore. He has extensive experience in assurance and advisory, having spent 16 years with PricewaterhouseCoopers.

In addition to his professional roles, Sarjit serves as the Chairman of the Singapore Overseas Regional Council of Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand; is a member of the Advocacy Committee of The Institute of Internal Auditors Singapore; and serves on the Investigations and Disciplinary Panel at the Institute of Singapore Chartered Accountants.

In 2023, Sarjit was appointed by the Ministry of Education to the Board of Trustees of the University of the Arts Singapore (UAS) and became the founding chairman of the Audit Committee at UAS.

Sarjit's contributions have been recognised with multiple accolades. He has received three national honours from the President of the Republic of Singapore, including the Public Service Star (Bar) in 2021, the Public Service Star in 2011, and the Public Service Medal in 2007. In 2019, he was honoured with the prestigious SkillsFuture Fellowship by the President of the Republic of Singapore for his mastery of skills and mentorship of future talent.

Recognised by Nanyang Technological University (NTU) as a 'financial industry talent', Sarjit was the winner of the Nanyang Alumni Achievement Award in 2012. Sarjit was appointed as an Adjunct Associate Professor by NTU from 2010 to 2016 given his expertise in Corporate Governance, Risk Management, Auditing, and Financial Reporting and Analysis.

Sarjit is an alumnus of Harvard University, having completed the Advanced Management Programme at Harvard Business School.

Sarjit's extensive experience and expertise make him a trusted advisor for organisations seeking strategic insights, robust risk management, and sustainable business practices. His expertise, leadership, and commitment make him a highly respected and accomplished professional in the field of accounting and finance. His contributions to the field of accounting and finance continue to benefit clients across various industries in the Southeast Asia region.