The IIA and the CIA Challenge Exam

The Institute of Internal Auditors
Singapore

Who is The IIA?

The Institute of Internal Auditors (The IIA) is the acknowledged worldwide leader of the internal audit profession, its global voice, recognised authority, chief advocate, and principal educator, with more than 200,000 members in over 170 countries around the world. Typically, members provide assurance and advisory services within the broad spectrum of governance, risk, and control, with responsibilities that may include internal and external auditing, risk management, internal control, information technology audit, education, and security.

The Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA) Singapore is the only professional body dedicated to the advancement and development of the internal audit profession in Singapore. For over 45 years, we have been advocating the interests of the profession and remain committed to raising the profile and standing of the internal audit profession and developing the knowledge, skills and expertise of internal auditors. Representing over 2,500 members, we enhance technical excellence through The IIA's International Standards for the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing and Code of Ethics.

What is Certified Internal Auditor (CIA)?

With over 170,000 holders worldwide, the Certified Internal Auditor® (CIA®) is the premier global certification for all those working in internal audit, regardless of background, sector, or region. It provides recognition and status among peers and principal stakeholders, and identifies individuals as committed and competent internal audit professionals. The CIA Challenge Exam is a unique opportunity for professional auditors to earn this distinguished certification through an expedited process based on the candidates' existing member affiliation.

What are the advantages of taking the CIA Challenge Exam?

With the CIA credential added to your resume, you demonstrate that you are a credible and trusted internal auditor who is knowledgeable in organisational governance and equipped for career-advancing opportunities.

Who are eligible for the CIA Challenge Exam?

Candidates must be current members of one of the following qualified accounting bodies; former members and students are ineligible:

- American Institute of CPAs (AICPA) *

What happens if I apply for the CIA Challenge Exam but do not meet the eligibility requirements?

If it is determined during the validation process that the candidate does not meet the eligibility requirements, the application will be denied. No refunds, in part or whole, will be provided to candidates once the application is submitted.

How do I apply for the CIA Challenge Exam program?

Exam candidates are required to create a profile record in The IIA's Certification Candidate Management System (CCMS). If the candidate has previously taken an IIA exam or attended IIA's International Conference, the candidate already has a record in CCMS. DO NOT create a second record, instead, go to RESETPASSWORD to recover your account. Candidates requiring assistance may open a new case in your CCMS profile by selecting "Help" on the CCMS home page.

- On the CCMS homepage, select "Apply for Certified Internal Auditor."
- Select "Accounting body challenge exam."
- After the payment screen, you must upload a letter of good standing from the qualified accounting body and a Government Issued ID. You must also complete the electronic character reference. Once approved into the program, you may register and schedule your examination.
- To register and schedule your exam, select "Manage my program > CIA > Register."

I am a member of the IIA but my membership is not reflected on my CCMS profile?

If you are a current IIA member, please select 'Help' and open a new case as you may have two CCMS profiles that need to be merged. Please do not purchase the CIA Challenge exam application unless the correct pricing for IIA members is reflected as no refunds or price adjustments will be made once they process your payment.

Where can I access my score report?

Please review the Certification handbook for additional details on scoring. If you passed the exam, your score report will indicate just that — no numeric score will be provided. Score reports for a failed exam will include a numeric score and a list of the syllabus domain areas where improvement is needed. Score reports can be found by selecting 'Access PearsonVUE' then 'View Score Reports' 24 hours after the examination is taken.

How do I register and schedule for the CIA Challenge Exam?

Access your CCMS profile. Once approved into the program, you may select "Manage my program," then select the examination on the left navigation bar and then select "Register" and/or "Schedule."

Schedule your examination for the month of November 2021 or January 2022. You will have the option to take your exam via online testing or at a testing center. To find the nearest testing center, visit the Pearson VUE page and select "Find a test center."

What if I do not receive the Letter of Good Standing from my QAB?

If a candidate is unsure of qualifying, the candidate should contact the relevant Accounting Body's Membership Services before applying for the CIA Challenge Exam. Under no circumstances will a refund (in part or whole) be issued after the application has been submitted.

What is Online Testing?

Online testing allows candidates to test using their own computer in their home, their office, or remotely in other acceptable locations. Visit the Pearson VUE online proctoring page for system requirements and additional information. Click Online Testing to watch a short video to learn more.

Do I meet system requirements for online testing?

To prepare and understand the check-in procedures and system requirements for online testing, visit the Pearson VUE online proctoring page and click “Run system test.” Once you download the application and follow the prompts, they are identical to checking in for your upcoming exam. This program will also test your system to determine if you meet the requirements needed to take the exam via online testing.

Online testing is no longer supported on Internet Explorer therefore candidates should plan to use Microsoft Edge, Safari, Chrome, and Firefox to take your exam.

Our vendor, Pearson VUE, has been made aware of issues with Mac devices when attempting to take the test online. While Pearson VUE works to resolve the issue, candidates are encouraged to use non-Mac devices to complete your test online. If that is not an option, consider taking your exam at a Pearson Vue test centre.

Please take note that candidates assume responsibility for meeting technical requirements prior to scheduling an exam and taking your exam via online testing including stable internet connectivity.

Pearson VUE System Test

- Log into your CCMS account.

Is my workspace okay for online testing?

During the check-in process, you will be asked to take photos of your work area, which will be checked by a proctor prior to exam launch. Please ensure that your desktop is clean and that you are not within arms' reach of books, notepads, sticky notes, papers, pens, pencils, and other writing instruments/objects. Additional monitors and computers must be unplugged and turned off. Items on the wall with writing on them such as whiteboards, will be inspected. If your workspace does not pass a room scan, you are not permitted to proceed with taking the examination via online testing.

Is there more than one exam date?

Candidates have to schedule one appointment date in November 2021 or January 2022 to sit for the exam.

Can I eat, drink, or take a break during the online exam?

The exam does not include scheduled breaks; breaks are not allowed during the exam for any reason. If you leave your computer during your exam, the proctor will end your session and you will be unable to continue testing. Water in a clear glass is allowed during testing; however, eating, smoking, ear plugs and chewing gum are not permitted.

When will I receive my score?

You can access your score report approximately 24 hours after your exam by going to your CCMS profile and clicking Access PearsonVUE > view score reports.

How can I contact IIA Singapore with regards to queries on the exam or assistance?

Continued Professional Education (CPE) Requirements

What are the CPE reporting requirements for the CIA professional certification when a candidate successfully completes the CIA Challenge Exam?

Certified Internal Auditors are required to report CPE hours on an annual basis, by 31 December. Newly Certified Internal Auditors are immediately awarded 80 CPE hours. Half (40) of the awarded CPE hours is for the year in which the exam is passed. The balance (40) is for the following year. These hours are automatically reported on a candidate's behalf for the first two (2) years of certification.

Candidates who successfully complete the CIA Challenge Exam will need to report their CPE credit hours for the first time no later than 31 December 2023. Once in a certified status, the expiration dates are provided on your CCMS home page. To learn more about maintaining certification, refer to the CPE Requirements webpage.

Who do I contact if I have a question regarding my certification or CPE requirements?

Please open a new case in your CCMS profile by selecting "Help" on the CCMS home page.
